Columbia State Park Decked Out for the Holidays and A Live Performance at the Historic Fallon House Theatre

Saturday, December 10, 2011
$78.00 per person

A Miner's Christmas - Sit around a campfire drinking hot cider or coffee and join in conversations with miners as they roast chestnuts. Enjoy crafts demonstrations of the 1850s and keep an eye out for Father Christmas as he wanders the streets looking for good boys and girls! Enjoy this historic town decked out for the holidays offering boutique shopping, classic candy shops, and period costumed docents to assist and direct you as you step back in time for a real old fashioned Christmas experience.

We'll also enjoy a live matinee performance of The Winter Wonderettes at the Historic Fallon House Theatre - This seasonal favorite finds the girls returning to their hometown for Betty Jean's company Christmas party. When Santa turns up missing, the girls must use their talent and creative ingenuity, plus some great holiday tunes to save the celebration. The result is, of course, marvelous!

"Time spent with these talented songbirds is as comfortable as coming home for the holidays to cocoa and a Johnny Mathis Christmas album." -- Variety
